You are staying with a host family in a small Scottish town. There are plans to build a large shopping centre close to the town. The local newspaper has published articles on the topic. You decide to write an article from a visitor's point of view.

In your article you should:

- point out the benefits of a shopping centre for the area
- outline the concerns of the local people
- explain why the town is or is not a good place for a shopping centre

Give your article a title. Write around 250 words.
