

Young&Smart, a magazine for young people, wants to find out if teenagers are interested in making everyday things themselves. They invite young readers to contribute articles:

Do It Yourself...

Young people grow plants, knit, cook,
make their own furniture...

Is this the future?
What do you think?

You have decided to send in an article. In your article you should:

- outline possible reasons for DIY trends
- explain whether schools should teach students more about making things themselves
- describe a DIY project you would like to do in the future

Give your article a title. Write around 250 words.
