

The European Commission for Education and Training has asked teenagers to send in reports on procrastination – the habit of leaving things you should do until later – among pupils. You are interested in the topic and have decided to do a survey at your school. These are the results:

n=200

You have decided to write a report.

In your report you should:

- present the data
- examine why the different age groups procrastinate
- recommend strategies for pupils to minimize procrastination

Divide your report into sections and give them headings. Write around 400 words.
